It is perfectly pure, beyond all doubt, being made ex-clusively of rye, hops, and barley-malt, with the utmost care. The quantity made is limited, and bought principally for private use, by gentlemen connoissieurs in the surrounding counties, who are eritically nice in laying by a stock for improvement.

MISCELLAREOUS READING.

MY PSALM .- BY J. G. WHITTIER. ourn no more my vanished years:

Beneath a tender rain, An April rain of smiles and tears,

My heart is young again. The west winds blow, and, singing low, I hear the glad streams run.

The windows of my soul I throw Wide open to the sun. No longer forward nor behind I look in hope and fear; But, grateful, take the good I find, The best of now and here.

To harvest weed and tare; The manna dropping from God's hand Rebukes my painful care.

I break my pilgrim staff, I lay Aside the toiling oar; The angel sought so far away,

I welcome at my door. The airs of spring may never play Among the ripening corn, Nor freshness of the flowers of May Blow through the autumn morn

Yet shall the blue eyed gentian look Through fringed lids to Heaven, And the pale aster in the brook Shall see its image given.

The woods shall wear their robes of praise, The south wind softly sigh, And sweet, calm days in golden haze Melt down the amber sky. Not less shall manly deed and word

Rebuke an age of wrong; The graven flowers that wreath the sword Make not the blade less strong. But smiting hands shall learn to heal,

To build as to destroy; Nor less my heart for others feel That I the more enjoy. All as God wills, who wisely heeds

To give or to withhold, And knoweth more of all my needs Than all my prayers have told! Enough that blessings undeserved Have marked my erring track-That wheresoe'er my feet have swerved, His chastening turned me back—

That more and more a Providence Of love is understood, Making the springs of time and sense Sweet with eternal good-That death seems but a covered way

Which opens into light, Wherein no blinded child can stray Beyond the Father's sight-That care and trial seem at last, Through Memory's sunset air, Like mountain ranges overpast,

In purple distance fair-That all the jarring notes of life Seem blending in a psalm, And all the angles of its strife Slow rounding into calm.

And so the shadows fall apart,

And so the west winds play;

And all the windows of my heart

I open to the day. MOONLIGHT EXCURSION !
